Constitution Day 2019
Youth Poster Design Contest

Each year we celebrate Constitution Day on September 17. We are inviting young citizens to take action! Students K-12 (including homeschoolers) are invited to design a poster featuring aspects of the U.S. Constitution.

Contest winners receiving additional prizes! Winning designs will be announced on October 27, 2019. Winning posters and other outstanding entries will be displayed at the Princeton Public Library throughout the fall.

Selection Criteria: Adherence to contest rules, content relevance, original artistic design

Participant Instructions:
- Designs must be created on an 8 1/2x11” paper
- Use colored pencils, markers, crayons, finger paints or watercolors and your favorite techniques for your design
- Posters can feature any aspect of the Constitution, including the Bill of Rights & Amendments
- Make it colorful and be creative!
- You must submit this completed form with your entry

PLEASE PRINT CLEARLY:
Name: ____________________________ Age: _______ Grade (K-12): ____________
Address: ________________________________________________________________
Daytime Phone: __________________ Email: ________________________________
School Name: __________________ School District: __________________________

Tell us what the U.S. Constitution means to you and your family:
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

All physical entries become the property of the Princeton Public Library and cannot be returned. The entries and their underlying design may be used by the Princeton Public Library, its sponsors, collaborators, and assigns at its sole discretion.

Signature of Parent or Legal Guardian: ________________________________
Print Name: ________________________________