

JULY 21 & 22, 2010

ABOUT

The annual Princeton Student Film & Video Festival is sponsored by Princeton Public Library. Now in its seventh year, the festival continues its mission to encourage and support the work young filmmakers working in a range of genres and styles, providing a venue for the filmmakers to show their work to a broad audience. The festival is open to young people ages 14-24 from Princeton and beyond.

This year, a selection of films from the Princeton Student Film & Video Festival will also screen at Artist Visions Film Festival, a new festival in nearby Lambertville, NJ, on Friday, July 23 and Saturday, July 24. The Lambertville festival features original short films from students in Hunterdon County, NJ, and Bucks County, PA, focused on the theme “Where I’m From” to showcase local culture and community.
